Commercial heifer show boasts tough competition

By MARSHA SPANGLER

The commercial heifer shows hars at the National Wastern were tough and full of competition this year. A classy set of growthy 5/8 Angus, 3/8 Chianino haifars took the champlonship. They were exhibited by Jim Ellsworth, Lesdors, Idsho.

The reserve chempion carload was exhibited by Wilksns Hereford Rench. Leotl, Kan. This uniform set of 20 black beldle beifers was bred to Brangus bulls.

In this year's show, there were 11 loads of haifer calves, and five loade of yearling brad balfars, to make this show a competi-

First ever 'on the hill' show parades Limousin breed tops Hereford breeders bring best for 'jubilee' centennial show

Undoubtedly every Limousin breeder in attendance at the open breeding cattle. show held during the first days of the National Western Denver, Colo, was filled with pride for his breed. This was the first time the Limousin breed had shown their cattle "on the hill," and many of the breeders talked about acceptance and approval of their brend by the livestock industry. The show was indeed a showcase of the breed's best animals, and Judge Jerry Fitzgeruld, Unrrison, Neb., suid that he fult the rhampions he chose were representative of the lámousin breed.

The large crowd of breeders and speciators that watched the show upphuded Judge Fitzgernhi's choice for grand champion hull, GKF Canadion Pacific. This hig, correct son of Echir CIM fit und out of Miss Glenkuir fielice CfF 30f) was also named tho chempine seniar bull on his way to the championship.

The champion was colved on Jan. 15, 1979 and was entored by Glenkuir Farms, Cirnnelview, Manitoba, Cunnds. Reserve champium bull honors went to Black Ace NPM, a Moy 18, 1978 son of Dynamo NIM, shown by Blackinck Cattle Co., Chattauooga, Okla, and Hoaver Croek Ranch, North Platte, Neb. He was also named tho resorve champion aenior in the female division of the show, the grand champion female was the senior champion, CMC Mils Snowflake 102L. What's behind the Simmental explosion?

Heavier weaning weights!

Tests conducted by Michigan State University, the U.S. Meat Animal Research Center, South Dakota State University and others have shown that Simmental breeding increases weaning weights from 40 to 100 lbs. or more. They did it simply by using registered

Market Roundup:

Prices drop sharply due to YG 4 supply

AN OVER ABUNDANCE OF YIELD-GRADE 4 and 5 heef in meat marketing channels pushed oll closses of steer and heifer corcass heef prices chorply lower last week, according to CNS roport.

A variety of foctors during the first two weeks of January mey have coused cattle feeders to hold cottle "just a little longer." Although fed cattle prices didn't follow dressed heef prices during the upward time after the holidoys, the cattle feeders were encouraged by the octive retail beef buying. However, as they weited for fed cattle prices to improve, the excellent feeding weether, which had pushed cattle two to four weeks sheed of schedule, caused cattle to goin too much weight, too fast.

Mony cottle feeders who had continued to wait for a tightening of cettle supplies and the improvement in prices that had been predicted to occur in December now have over-for cattle on hand. These cattle feeders moy have finally replized those "better prices" are not realistic, considering present market conditions. Even if these cattle feeders du decide to cluon up the yield grode 4 cattle, one Corn Belt feedlot source said it would take ot lenst 30 doys.

Larger than nonnal exports of live cettle into Ontorio, Canado, have pressured Canadian cattla prices lower while supporting higher prices in the U.S., eccording to livestock nonlysts and foedlot sources.

Nenrly holf of last week's Ontorio steer sloughtor of 14,000 head was made up of steers from Michigen, Indiana, lown, Illinois and Ohio. This is pushing up the merket in that aree end thoughts are this may not lost.
